

Social and Personal.

THE Christmas Monday dance last night in the Masonic Temple was one of the most brilliant affairs in the history of the club, about 500 guests all being present. Col. J. Lane Stern led the German, dancing with Miss Edith Taylor, who wore an imported gown of black meteor crepe, embroidered in gold.

The ballroom, with its gay holiday decorations, was a veritable bower of beauty. A great crimson bell was suspended in the center of the hall, from which ropes of running cedar, hung with smaller bells, were festooned to the sides of the walls. Garlands of cedar draped the doorways, and groups of palms and green bay trees decorated the ends of the room. The windows were also curtained in holly, and wall-pockets of poinsettias and cedar were suspended from the lights. In the dining-room, which was canvased in white, the same mode of decoration prevailed. Vases of poinsettias and red roses ornamented the tables, and garlands of running cedar were draped from the center of the four corners of the room.

Some of the out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Glasgow, London, England; Mr. and Mrs. R. Lancaster Williams, Baltimore; Trustees Draper, Wilmington, Delaware; T. N. Page, Norfolk; Churchill J. Gibson, Alexandria; C. W. Sams, Newport News; Edward Parker, Leesylvania; and J. Croxton, Gordon, Youngstown, Ohio; John A. Spillman, Bath, Maine; Charles Talbot, Chicago; Mr. Talbot, Brookline, Massachusetts, and others.

At the Woman's Club.
Professor C. Edmund Neil, of the University of West Virginia, who lectured at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon was enthusiastically received by his audience. His subject, "Lord Chumley," from the charming comedy collaborated by Belasco and De Mille, is full of subtle humor and delicate wit, and presented as it was by so able a speaker, was unusually interesting and pleasing. Mr. Neil's impersonations were unique and original, and his facial expressions most amusing.

A number of special guests were present and an unusually good audience greeted Mr. Neil, although a great many members of the club are spending the holidays in town.

In Honor of Mrs. Swanson.
Mrs. Andrew Jackson Gray, Jr., will give a large afternoon reception on Thursday, January 6, from 5 to 7 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Claude A. Swanson. The reception will be given in the parlors of the Woman's Club and will be one of the most brilliant affairs in the series of handsome entertainments that follow the holidays.

Hostess at Tea.
Miss Lucy Ann Gathway will be hostess at a very attractive tea at her home, 900 West Grace Street, on Thursday afternoon, December 30, from 5 to 7 o'clock, in honor of Misses Kitty Rogers, of Lexington; Louise Payne, of Lynchburg; and Lucy Sims, of Louisa, who are her house guests for the holidays.

Donner-Williamham.
The marriage of Miss Cornelia Williamham, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Williamham, of the city, to Dr. James Walker Donner, of Orange county, will be celebrated this evening in the Second Baptist Church at half-after 6 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the bride's father, assisted by Dr. W. R. L. Smith, pastor of the church.

The church will be beautifully decorated in palms and lighted candles, and D. W. Hough will preside at the organ, and "O Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star," from Tannhauser, will be softly played during the ceremony. George Downer, of Gordonsville, will act as the groom's best man, and Miss Belle Williamham, wearing an imported ed gown of pink brocade and chiffon with garniture of pearls, will attend her sister as maid of honor. She will carry a bouquet of white roses. Mrs. Robert J. Williamham Jr., will be dame of honor and will wear white, meshing gown, embroidered in pearls, and carry a bouquet of pink roses. The ushers will include Dr. William A. Harris, C. G. Worsham, George Whitfield, Ashby Downer, W. L. Prince and John Downer.

The bride, who will enter the church on the arm of her brother, Dr. J. Williamham, Jr., will be handsomely gowned in ivory satin, with trimmings of real lace and pearls. Her tulle veil will be caught with pearls, and her bouquet will be shower of lilies of the valley and lily of the roses.

The bridal party was entertained informally at the home of the bride last evening. Immediately after the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Downer will leave for the North. They will be at home after January 25 in Waco, Tex., where Dr. Downer holds the chair of Latin at Baylor University.

Visiting in Canada.
Dr. B. Thomas Blackwell left Sunday for Toronto, Canada, where he will represent the dental department of the Medical College of Virginia at the meeting of the Institute of Dental Pedagogics, which meets in that city this week.

Meeting of Colonial Dames.
The monthly meeting of the Virginia Society of Colonial Dames will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Woman's Club. A full attendance is desired.

Wedding of Miss Margaret Beatrice Cox and William Meredith Norment will take place this evening at 7 o'clock in the Third Christian Church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Cox, of this city, and the groom lately of Richmond, now resides in Bethany, W. Va.

The couple will leave for Washington immediately after the wedding, and after a short stay in that city will leave for the University of Virginia, where they will make their home.

Westmoreland Club Reception.
Members of the Westmoreland Club are invited to assemble at the clubhouse on Friday evening between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock, for the usual Christmas entertainment of the club. Owing to the largely increased membership, no invitation card for guests will be issued to members, as has been the custom heretofore.

McKee Dunn, of Yale University, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. George Cole Scott, for ten days.

Charles E. Ashburner, who has been spending several days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Haskins Hobson at "Mt. Airy," Powhatan county, stopped in the city yesterday, en route to his home in Staunton.

Mrs. J. C. Page and Miss Virginia Pickett Burrell are spending the holidays in Suffolk. They are the guests of Mrs. Page's mother, Mrs. Mattes.

Mrs. W. F. Monell and daughter, Dorothy Dean, are visiting in Portsmouth.

Miss Nannie Nelson Dabney, of Newport News, is the house guest of Mrs. William H. Hoofnagle, 291 East Franklin Street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Radcliffe are in New York for the holidays.

Churchill J. Gibson, of Alexandria, is visiting his father, Bishop Gibson, at his home on Park Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster Williams, formerly of this city, now of Baltimore, are the guests of friends here.

Mrs. Chiles Forrell is visiting her parents, Colonel and Mrs. White, at their home in Wheeling, W. Va.

Dr. M. O. Burke is visiting relatives in Suffolk for a few days.

Miss Maria P. Mosely, of 112 South Third Street, has returned to the city after a visit to Charleston, W. Va.

Robert H. Synnor, of Dublin Institute, will not spend the holidays in Richmond, but is the guest of friends in Wytheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Schwab, of Birmingham, Ala., and Miss Meta Stimpert, of Wellesley College, will be among the out-of-town guests at the Hold-Rosenbloom wedding, which takes place this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edloe P. Bickers, of 413 North Second Street, left last week for Muskegon, Mich., to visit the latter's brother, H. W. Ball, for some time.

The Misses Garst, of Salem, Va., are visiting Mrs. J. A. Kratz, 1913 Jefferson Park.

Mrs. Channing Turner, who has been ill at the Memorial Hospital, is now at her home, 309 East Franklin Street.

Mrs. H. V. Cowlin, who has been for several months in Boston, visited Dr. N. W. Cowlin, is visiting her daughter in Hampton.

Miss Sadie Coumans, of 315 East Clay

Street, has returned to her home, Church, Amelia county, to spend the holidays.

Is Your Shovel Worn Out?

The price of a new shovel is a small matter. But are you going on forever shoveling into a furnace twice as much coal as is really needed to heat your house—and then shoveling out twice as many ashes? Ashes are expensive, because coal is expensive. You can't afford to let one shovelful of coal get away without getting its full content of heat out of it, and
